

Join us at the United States Air Force Academy for an exciting RCLS Course at UNIVERSITY OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN REGION!

Region Cadet Leadership School

Focused on leadership, delegation, and public speaking, the program offers a blend of academic rigor and hands-on application. Guest speakers, ranging from accomplished cadets to VIP's, will share decades of military and civilian leadership insights. Leadership lessons and activities will help cadets learn the skills that are required for a phase 4 cadet and beyond.

RCLS not only marks an academic milestone but equips emerging leaders with the skills and wisdom for success in diverse arenas. One of the requirements for the Eaker Award, the RCLS course is affordable and offers a unique experience at USAFA.

Student cost $300. The cost includes room and board (meals, towels, etc.) at the Air Force Academy Prep School, meeting room set-up, dining facilities, use of the Falcon Club, Ropes Course and additional formal meeting places to host speakers. While the fee does not include travel costs, CAP transport will be provided from the Colorado Springs Airport (COS) to/from USAFA.
